

Library Release / Thesis Contributor Agreement For Doctoral and MPhil Candidates

This form is available to download from: www.mrgs.monash.edu.au/research/examination/thesis-submission.html

Privacy Notice: The information on this form is collected for the primary purpose of compiling library catalogue information relating to your thesis and for seeking your consent to publish your thesis online and/or to store your manuscript in the library. If you choose not to complete all the questions on this form, it may not be possible to award your degree. Details such as date of birth, are required when supplying information to the national bibliographic database, where there may be a need to distinguish between authors of the same name. The supervisor's name is useful to other PhD candidates researching potential thesis topics. You have a right to access personal information that Monash University holds about you, subject to any exceptions in relevant legislation. If you wish to seek access to your personal information or enquire about the handling of your personal information, please contact the University Privacy Officer on (03) 9905 6011.

Submission Requirement

Excluding those exempt categories noted below, all candidates are required to provide an electronic copy of their thesis (eThesis) for archiving in the Monash University ARROW Repository.

Exemptions: eThesis submission is NOT compulsory for PhD candidates enrolled prior to July 2005 or in the following research degrees: PhD under a cotutelle arrangement; Staff PhD; MD (unsupervised); and MPhil.

Online Publication Agreement for eThesis

Candidates may publish their thesis as an eThesis in the Monash University ARROW Repository after successful ratification of the thesis at the end of the examination process. The Candidate/Author retains copyright in their thesis but provides Monash University with a non-exclusive license to publish the thesis under the terms and conditions of this agreement.

Warranties: In consideration for publication of the thesis, the Author warrants that they are the author and owner of the copyright in the thesis, that they have the full power and right to grant Monash University the right to publish the thesis.

Rights Granted: Where appropriate the Candidate / Author grants to Monash University a non-exclusive worldwide licence to reproduce, publish and communicate the thesis or any part of the thesis online using any technology, whether existing before or after the date of this Licence, for non-commercial, research purposes for the full remaining term of the copyright subsisting in the thesis in each applicable jurisdiction. The Candidate/Author grants to Monash University permission to make technical changes to the format of the thesis as necessary for online publication and future preservation.

When exercising any of the Rights Granted under this Agreement, Monash University agrees to provide appropriate acknowledgement of the Candidate / Author as creator of the thesis. When using the thesis for any other purposes, the Candidate / Author agrees to acknowledge, if applicable, that a version of the thesis has been published online by Monash University.

Monash will cease to provide open access to the full text version of the thesis if requested by a publisher in instances where a thesis is accepted for publication elsewhere. Monash retains the right to supply the thesis in whole or in part, under Section 51 (2) of the Copyright Act.

Third-Party Copyright Clearance

Where significant third-party copyright material is included within the thesis, the Candidate / Author is required to have obtained permission from copyright holder/s to publish this content online. Significant third-party works may include published or unpublished pictures, figures, tables, and text excerpts larger than one percent of an entire text work. Permission is also required for adaptations of work. The Candidate / Author may be required to provide evidence of permissions obtained when requested by the University.
